BRIGADIER GENERAL RICHARD M. MCGILL

Brigadier General Richard M. McGill is mobilization assistant to the commander of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, a field operating agency with headquarters at Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland. He manages and directs the investigative activities of more than 425 Reserve individual mobilization augmentee special agents. The agents provide commanders of all Air Force activities independent, professional investigative services regarding fraud, counterintelligence, and major criminal matters at all major Air Force installations and a variety of special operating locations.

The general entered the Air Force in 1967 as a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo. He served four years active duty with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, and then separated from active duty in August 1971, joining the Air Force Office of Special Investigations Reserve individual mobilization augmentee program.
