BRIGADIER GENERAL ROBERT A. KRELL

Brigadier General Robert A. Krell is mobilization assistant to the deputy chief of staff, United Nations Command (UNC) and U.S. Forces Korea, Yongsan Army Garrison, South Korea. He supports the DCoS who serves as the U.S. member of the UNC Military Armistice Commission; interacts with UNC liaison groups from eight nations and supervises UNC (Rear) headquarters at Camp Zama, Japan. Moreover, he helps the DCoS direct, coordinate and integrate the actions of the USFK joint staff and component commands. Finally, he assists the DCoS who works with the U.S. Embassy and Republic of Korea government to coordinate matters affecting U.S. military and civilian personnel stationed in the republic.

General Krell was commissioned in June 1968 through Air Force ROTC at Syracuse University as a distinguished graduate. He finished number one both in his class and also at summer camp training and commanded the ROTC detachment. The general attended National War College and commanded the War Gaming and Simulation Detachment at the National Defense University. He has been assigned to the Air Force Secretariat, Air Staff, MAJCOM and Office of the Secretary of Defense levels. He holds the master communications and intelligence badges.
